学校に行きたい本当の理由

物語本文

Ken and his family moved into a New York City apartment. Their home was on the third floor, and Ken really liked it. From his bedroom window, he could see a lovely garden. Every morning, he looked outside. But he wasn't looking at the garden. He was waiting for the school bus. Each day, the big, yellow bus stopped at his building. Lots of children got on. It looked so exciting! One evening, Ken asked his father a question. "May I start going to school?" "Yes, of course," his father answered. He was happy because he thought Ken wanted to study. Ken smiled. He just wanted to ride the bus!

ワンポイントアドバイス

窓の外で楽しそうにバスに乗り込む児童たちを見て、お父さんに「学校に行きたい」と伝える場面です。“Yes, of course,”と返事がきてうれしくてたまらないケンですね。やっぱり美しい庭よりもバスに乗って学校に行きたかったようです。ここでの重要表現は One evening, Ken asked his father a question. (ある晩、ケンはお父さんに一つ質問をしました。)です。askは「人に質問をする」という順番が大切ですので覚えておきましょう。
