

Episode 12

大切なものを車の上に乗せて

物語本文

Ken loved New York City. It was fun to ride the school bus every day and play baseball with his friends.

He felt a little sad about leaving.

Over the next few weeks, he packed his books, clothes, and baseball equipment in a big box.

When moving day arrived, he helped his father put the box on top of their car. There was no room for it in the trunk.

This was because the trunk already held his family's television!

Finally, Ken climbed into the back seat.

As the car pulled away, he took one last look at his New York home.

Thinking question 問題文と答えの例

If you were Ken, how would you feel on moving day?

答えの例

※あくまでも例のひとつです。

I'd feel a little sad, but I'd also be looking forward to my new home in Canada.

ワンポイントアドバイス

引っ越しの準備をしながら楽しかった思い出がよみがえります。
出発当日、出発する車から最後にアパートを見ていた時のケンの気持ちは…。でも、大丈夫! 次のカナダでも楽しい毎日が待っているよ、ケン♪この重要表現は“He felt a little sad about leaving.”(彼は去ることを少しさびしく感じた。)です。feltの後には気持ちを表す形容詞(happy, sad, surprisedなど)を用います。
